

"I slept, but my heart was awake, when I heard my lover knocking and calling: "Open to me, my treasure, my darling, my dove, my perfect one. My head is drenched with dew, my hair with the dampness of the night." But I responded, "I have taken off my robe. Should I get dressed again? I have washed my feet. Should I get them soiled?" My lover tried to unlatch the door, and my heart thrilled within me. I jumped up to open the door for my love, and my hands dripped with perfume. My fingers dripped with lovely myrrh as I pulled back the bolt. I opened to my lover, but he was gone! My heart sank. I searched for him but could not find him anywhere. I called to him, but there was no reply". Song of Solomon 5: 2-6

It is time to run back to Jesus today and make your heart right with Him, no one knows the hour when He shall return but Jesus is knocking on the door of your heart today, Jesus says, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears and listens to and heeds My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will eat with him, and he [will eat] with Me". Revelation 3:20. I believe one of the reasons the Lord gave this vision is to have mercy on as many as will return to Him and give HIM preeminence and control over their lives. Selah!

Who reigns in your heart

After a long day, I decided to get some night rest and the Lord showed up. I had the most remarkable experience in my Christian walk. The Holy Spirit in a vision took me to a place, with a very large land mass and He showed me different portions of the land. One portion looked like an estate with numerous houses, another portion had commercial cities with different activities going on there. Then He brought me to a very tiny area which was empty and dry, and with a sobbing voice He said "Look at the little portion given to me." The sobbing was so intense, I woke up and could feel it in my heart. Shortly after I woke up and said "Lord what is the meaning of this which you have shown me". He said "The whole land mass which I showed you represents the heart of many people, the large estates and commercial areas represents the thoughts and activities that have taken over their hearts. Then He said the little land which was dry and empty represents the portion of their hearts which they reserved for me".

Beloved, the bible says

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also".

Matthew 6:21.

In this time and age where many are wandering in sin, distracted by different activities of life, it is important that we reorder our steps back to our first love which is Jesus Christ. There will come a time, after all has been said and done and your life has been lived; all your treasures will mean nothing, but how you lived your life will determine where you will spend your eternity.

Jesus is knocking on the door of your heart, respond to Him while He can still be found:
